Juanita "Jane" Gillick

(December 21, 1928 - January 29, 2014)

Beloved school teacher and 60 year Amador County resident Juanita "Jane" M. Gillick, age 85, of Volcano, CA, passed away Wednesday, January 29, 2014, in Jackson. Jane was born in Wheaton, CO on December 21, 1928, a daughter of the late Lura Willa (Townsend) and Edwin Monroe.

She is survived by husband, John Gillick, Sr. of Volcano, daughters, Suzanne , and her husband, Ed Dye, of Tacoma, WA; Jeanne, and her husband, Duane Dague, of Paso Robles, CA; son, John and his wife, Kristy, of Pine Grove, CA; grandchildren, Kristopher, Rayna, Meghan, Rebecca and Joshua.

Jane enjoyed riding motorcycles and horses, reading and music but her real love was teaching, whether in the classroom or one on one tutoring. Jane started her 43 year teaching career in the Volcano school house, transferring to the little red school house in Pine Grove, which is now an historic building. Jane would retire from her beloved position from Pine Grove Elementary.

Friends are invited to attend a celebration of life Sunday, February 16, 2014, 3:00 PM at the Volcano Town Hall in Volcano. Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Amador and Calaveras Counties, PO Box 595, Jackson, CA 95642; PKD (Polycystic Kidney Disease) Foundation, 8330 Ward Parkway, Ste. 510, Kansas City, MO 64114 or St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105-1905.
