Richard Vincent Cloyd

(March 20, 2014)

1937 - 2014

Richard Cloyd, age 76, died, Thursday, 20 March 2014 at Windsor Redding Care Center after a short battle with Sarcoma cancer.

He is preceded in death by his loving wife Dee and his eldest son Robert Cloyd. Mr. Cloyd is survived by two children: Mark Cloyd and Vincent Cloyd. He also leaves behind five grandchildren, Robert Cloyd, Desmond Cloyd, Cody Cloyd, Amanda Young and Shastina Cloyd and 6 great grandchildren.

He grew up in Fort Jones, CA the only son of Thomas Howard Cloyd and Marjorie Durham. As a child, he grew up working with his father at the family creamery.

Richard is a veteran of the Vietnam and Korean Wars, where he earned several medals, Navy Commendation Medal, Navy Achievement Medal, Good Conduct Medal, Overseas Duty Ribbon, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, and Navy Sea Ribbon. He served 30 years with distinction as a Chief Warrant Officer Four. The discipline and patriotism he learned in the Navy never left him, as friends and family will attest.

His attention to detail was legendary. He took pride in the fact that he served his country and tirelessly contributed to his community through volunteering for the Red Cross, Shasta/ Tehama Amateur Radio Emergency service and the Shingletown Volunteer Sheriff Deputy Department.

Services will be held Northern California Veterans Cemetery in Igo, CA at 9:30 am on April 18th, 2014.

Donations can be made to the Wounded Warrior Program.
